Annual cross country skiing competitions for children from disadvantaged areas of Cluj County

Crina Laura Ionescu, Cristian Potora
Cluj County School Inspectorate, Romania

In February 2024, the Cluj County Schools Inspectorate organized the traditional cross country skiing competitions of the season. The 7th edition of “Avram Iancu” Cup took place at Măguri Bogdănești on 4th February 2024.

The participants were over 60 pupils from all the 7 mountain centers of cross country skiing of Cluj County: Middle School Răchițele – Mărgău commune, Middle School “Pelaghia Roșu” Mărișel, Middle School Măguri Bogdănești - Măguri Răcătău commune, Middle School “Avram Iancu” Beliș, Vocational School “Ady Endre” Sâncraiu, Middle School Râșca, and Middle School Gimnazială Rogojel – Săcuieu commune.

The competition organizers also invited pupils with special education needs enrolled at the Huedin Special Middle School.

The Cluj County Schools Inspectorate was represented by deputy school inspector Cristian Simion Potoră and inspectors Laura Ionescu and Mihaly Bela, collaborating with the Mayor’s Office and Local Council of Măguri Răcătău commune, represented by Mayor Livescu Alexandru, personal counsellor Tomoș Alin and deputy mayor Prigoană Petru; together with school teachers, parents and local communities they contributed to ensuring optimal conditions for this unique competition at the national level, exclusively dedicated to children with disadvantaged background of Cluj County.

We should mention that these cross country skiing competitions that take place every winter are part of the project of the educational health prevention project in rural areas Sport-an alternative for a healthy life, along with spring and autumn cross country competitions.
